Hello, My name is Karen Andrews and I grew up on Burden Avenue. I considered Doris and her husband to be neighbors; they lived "down the street." I remember the afghan dogs they had back in the 60s. Doris was very nice to my family. Please accept our sincere condolences on your loss. It has been nice to see a more recent picture of Doris. I will hold her memory in my heart.

Hello, my name is Linda, and I knew Doris because she was great friends with my Aunt Eileen Taylor. We had done some lunches together and I so appreciated her sense of humor, she was full of the dickens! She was wonderful to my aunt and I do want to say I am so sorry for your loss.
