September 11, 1925 - January 6, 2020

Carmela (Carm) Alice Langlois

Passed away peacefully at home in Toronto on Monday January 6th, 2020 in her 94th year, with family at her bedside.

Cherished wife of the late John (Jack) Edward Langlois. Beloved mother of Paul (Jan), Anne (Simon), Mike (Irene), Louise (Paul) and Bill (Jennifer). Proud grandmother of 17 grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews who will dearly miss her love, guidance, and immense support.

Carm is survived by her sister Joan Hazel (Joe), her brother Doug and his wife Bev, her sisters-in-law Frances Langlois and Sheila Leger

She is predeceased by her parents Anthony and Helen Leger, her brothers Adrian (Sheila) and Tony (Dottie), and her daughter-in-law Donna.

Carm was born and raised in Quebec City. She was a graduate of St. Michael's School of Nursing in Toronto, Ontario. Carm met Jack in Quebec City and they were engaged at Midnight Mass and married in Quebec City. Jack and Carm lived in Montreal where they raised a family of 5 children.

Carm returned to nursing after Jack's death in 1970. She worked at Lachine General Hospital for almost 20 years until her retirement. Carm moved to Ottawa for 7 years, then to Toronto for over 20 years, to enjoy and be closer to her family.

Carm's first love was her family. Carm was the epicentre of the family and delighted in family gatherings for celebrations, traditions, and Sunday dinners. Carm especially loved family get togethers near the water. She had great memories of many cottage holidays, thousands of Scrabble games, and almost four decades of seaside summer holidays in Ocean Park Maine. "Life is a Beach" was her favorite expression.

Carm was active in the church and her faith was central to her life. Her thoughtfulness, kindness, wisdom, love and selflessness were driven by her beliefs. Carm made a positive impact on every life she touched.

Carm's funeral Mass will be held Friday, January 17 at 11 AM at Saint Gregory's Catholic Church in Etobicoke. The address is 122 Rathburn Road, M9B 2K2 (corner of Kipling and Rathburn).

The family is very grateful to the Palliative Care Services, as they provided all the supports needed to care for someone at home.

We welcome donations to The Dorothy Ley Hospice (www.dlhospice.org) in memory of Carm Langlois .
